

invest in youth.

Friends,

The last year has been full of stress, grief and uncertainty for most of us. Emergency proclamations and funding have helped, but as our community and economy start to recover, it's clear that with less life experience to lean on, the youth we serve have a steep hill to climb to regain stability.

With this at the forefront of our work, Northwest Youth Services is gearing up to expand our services and reach to meet the needs of the next generation of youth and young adults we'll meet.

We are asking ourselves and our community some challenging questions:

- What systems need to change in order to end the cycle of poverty?
- How does our community begin to heal from the damage these systems have done?

This Fall, we are looking forward to sharing our vision of the future with you and our communities.

This is where you come in. We are asking our community sponsors to support our creation of a five - seven minute video that will highlight our goals for the future. This video will premiere in-person (if advisable) and online, kicking off our 2021 Fall fundraising push. Your support will be highlighted and shared throughout our campaign efforts as we envision a new future, together.

Keep on Keepin' on!

Jason McGill,
Executive Director

We have big goals. Help us reach them.

Help us spread the word and highlight the work that Northwest Youth Services does to support youth and young adults in our communities.

Your sponsorship will be used to develop a five to seven minute video that highlights our future vision for supporting youth. This includes our plans to change the systemic barriers in our communities' safety-net, which disproportionately impact young people experiencing homelessness.

Your support will be highlighted in the fall of 2021 when we premiere the video in the following ways:

Online Premiere

In early fall we will premiere our video through multiple social media sources, encouraging community members to support our work.

Sponsorship funds above and beyond the video production will be pooled to leverage support from the community through a matching challenge.

In-Person Event(s)

While a large, in-person event feels out of reach in 2021, we hope that small groups can gather to celebrate our work.

We anticipate small house parties, online watch parties, and sharing the video with our community partners to play for their small gatherings.

We want to recognize your support.
