job description: care coordinator I – outreach and engagement

agency information

Position Title: Care Coordinator I – Outreach and Engagement

Location: Whatcom County

Reports to: Youth Engagement Manager

Hours: 40 hours per week, non-exempt position

Starting Wage Range: $20.00 - $22.29; wage dependent upon relevant experience, qualifications, and education

Women, people of color, transgender individuals, alumni of foster care, those who have experienced youth homelessness and members of other underrepresented populations are strongly encouraged to apply.

Mission: At Northwest Youth Services, we affirm youth experience and autonomy, as we work together to foster collective healing and justice, in order to dismantle the systems of oppression that perpetuate youth homelessness.

Core Values:

Community – We promote interdependence and recognize that everybody needs a community to thrive. We know that we are stronger together.

Justice & Liberation - We believe that it is critical to acknowledge, name, and actively work to dismantle the historic systems and societal structures that fuel crisis and poverty.

Humanity - We work with respect and compassion for each other and believe that everyone deserves to belong: to be safe, heard, and valued.

Accountability – We believe that no one is done learning; as a community we hold each other to a high standard, and work to educate, grow and heal together.

Vision: Guided by our core values and commitment to becoming an Anti-Racist organization, Northwest Youth Services envisions a community in which all young people are seen as catalysts in creating a just and liberated society that supports each of our unique journeys through life.

job mission

This position contributes to Northwest Youth Services' (NWYS) success by providing basic coordination of care for youth program participants within NWYS Ground Floor Day and Outreach Services. The Ground Floor is a youth daytime drop-in center for unhoused youths in the Bellingham area. Under the direction of the Youth Engagement Manager, Care Coordinators are responsible for facilitating and cultivating and environment where youth feel welcomed, are oriented to the services that are provided at the Ground Floor, and referred to social and clinical support services when appropriate. Care Coordinators must operate in a collaborative team format that offers group activities, housing support services, as well as street outreach services to unhoused youth in Bellingham.

core competencies

To perform this job successfully, the individual should demonstrate the following competencies:

Change Agility: Able to embrace needed change; able to provide and implement feedback; effective in the face of ambiguity.

Integrity: Must be honest and take responsibility for actions and enforce healthy boundaries with both youth and staff members.

Positive Impact: Have a passion for NWYS' mission and vision; display a positive attitude.

Learning Agility: Seeks to improve knowledge, skills, and abilities in related service areas. Accepts and is receptive to supervision, accepts direction and integrates feedback.

Creativity: Resourceful in finding ways to improve and advocate for change when necessary; fosters creativity in others.

Active Listening: Ability to effectively work independently and in partnership with team members; ability to communicate effectively with youth and others.

Informal Communication: Articulate ideas clearly and organize ideas effectively. Answers phone calls and emails promptly and respectfully.

Organizational Knowledge: Understands operational procedures; demonstrates an in-depth understanding of what the organization does.

Initiative: Proactive; act without being prompted.

Team Player: Effectively partner with people across the organization; is committed to the success of all team members as it supports the vision and mission of the organization.

Sensitivity: Communicates empathy and respect of individuals; ability to be appreciative of diversity.
